

~~TOP SECRET~~
SECURITY INFORMATION

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCE METHOD EXEMPTION 3020
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2007

SECURITY

The following facts regarding Subject's association with the United States Government can be ascertained at this time. It can be assumed that additional information held by him will become known in the future.

A. During his association with CIA, Subject met the following persons under their pseudonyms:

1. Staff Employees:

() (by true name), () (by true name?), () (communications instructor) (by true name), and a number of special instructors from TSS and the Communications Division.

2. Indigenous Instructors:

Among the indigenous instructors Subject met, the following were most closely associated with him: Bronius Michelevicius (by true name), Bronius Ausrotas (by true name), CARCAJOU.

3. In London, Subject met the following persons:

() (whose true name he knew), () Professor Zymantas (Zakevicius) (by true name), Fabijonas Neveravicius (by true name), Anicetas Dukaitis (the British Lithuanian agent, by true name), LEON (the Latvian agent with whom Subject had parachute training), () secretary) () housekeeping couples, Col. Edmundas.

4. Indigenous Lithuanians with whom Subject met during his association with CIA:

Professor Kaminskas, Vaclovas Sidzikauskas, General Rastikis, Jonas Kupstas. These were known to him by true name.

B. As a result of Subject's primary mission, the exfiltration of () a certain amount of past operational information was made known to him in order to assist him in carrying out his mission. This information dealt with the CIA operation involving () his contacts, partisan activities as reported by him, his operational limitations and his letters revealing his handwriting and additional information which Subject would use in contacting (). In London, Subject also became knowledgeable of our attempt to use Colonel Edmundas to resupply () with Rubles.

C. It is difficult to ascertain how much additional sensitive information became known to Subject during his training period and during his tour

~~TOP SECRET~~
SECURITY INFORMATION

~~TOP~~ SECRET
SECURITY INFORMATION

in London. It must be assumed that he knew the exact location of the safehouse in Vienna, Virginia. He also knew the true name of the housekeeping couple. Through his association with [] , he became aware of the plans for the utilization of [] and of their disposal in the United States. In London, Subject gained knowledge of the activities of the British agent Dukaitis and his part in British operations into Lithuania.

Subject is aware of CIA installations in the Munich area where he was given parachute training. In Munich, he also knows the connection of Jonas Kupstas with the U.S. Government and probably our relationship with General Rastikis.

~~TOP~~ SECRET
SECURITY INFORMATION